

Employment Opening

The Ohio State University-Sleep Medicine. Seeking an Academic Pulmonologist/Sleep Medicine Specialist at the Assistant or Associate Professor rank in the clinician-educator track. Candidates must be board certified/eligible in pulmonary and sleep medicine. Duties include supervision and teaching of fellows and residents in the medical intensive care unit, pulmonary consult service, and the sleep medicine program. Join a group of twelve board-certified sleep specialists in the only referral center in the greater Columbus area with an ACGME -accredited sleep medicine fellowship program. Interest in clinical research strongly preferred. The division offers numerous opportunities in clinical care, research, and teaching.

Qualified candidates are invited to send CV to: Ulysses J. Magalang, MD, Director- Sleep Medicine Program, Division of Pulmonary, Critical Care, and Sleep Medicine, The Ohio State University, 201 HLRI, 473 West 12th Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210, or email: magalang.1@osu.edu.

The Ohio State University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

MEDICAL DIRECTOR - SLEEP MEDICINE

Connecticut Children's Medical Center | Hartford, Connecticut

The Department of Pediatrics at Connecticut Children's Medical Center seeks a board certified sleep specialist. This is a key position to develop and grow, and strategically plan for the overall Development of the program.

In this position, you will participate in the growth of the current program which is supported by the Pulmonary and ENT Divisions. Their goal is to open an outpatient satellite facility in Farmington, Connecticut.

The ideal candidate will be trained in Pulmonary Medicine, Neurology or Development Pediatrics; completed a fellowship in sleep medicine and possess 2-3 years of experience.

According to U.S. News and World Report, Connecticut Children's Medical Center has been named in the top 30 in the specialty areas of orthopedics, endocrinology and urology.

This position offers a competitive salary with full and comprehensive benefits. An academic appointment is available from the University of Connecticut.

Connecticut Children's is a 147-bed, free-standing hospital with an 18-bed PICU and a 32-bed NICU. They are committed with families to provide outstanding clinical care for children, and perform cutting edge clinical and basic research.

Connecticut Children's maintains a Division of Research, a Research Center, and a Childhood database Center for the University of Connecticut School of Medicine residency program in pediatrics. Connecticut Children's Specialty Group, Inc. is a 130+ physician, multi-specialty pediatric group (medical and surgical), which is a subsidiary of Connecticut Children's.

To learn more about Connecticut Children's please visit: www.connecticutchildrens.org

For more information and to apply for this position, contact either:

Danise A. Cooper
 dcooper@cejkasearch.com | 800-678-7858

Beth Briggs
 ebriggs@cejkasearch.com | 800-678-7858

Connecticut Children's is an Equal Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer.